necessaries usual for Barracks. And to the end the said Barracks, and all the Furniture therein may be preserved from wilful Damage, Wast and Embezelment, We have thought it necessary to appoint Barrack-masters, and take into their Care and Charge all the said Barracks; and to the intent and purposes that no person whatsoever in His Majesty's pay may pretend Ignorance, in what is necessary to be by them observed and performed, do Publish these Rules, Orders and Directions following.

rack-master shall take a View of the said Barrack or Redoubt, before the Troop or Company therein is Relieved ; and if upon View thereof, all the parts of the said Barrack shall be found in good Order and Condition, and all the Furniture in like good Order and Condition (the ordinary Wear and Use only excepted) the said Barrack-master shall then Deliver the Barrack and Furniture to the Relieving Officer by new Inventory, to be Signed as aforesaid, and thereupon the Officer Relieved shall be Discharged of the Trust: But if upon View and Examination it shall be found, that any Damage has been wilfully done to the Building or any part there, or that any of the Furniture has been Abused, Imbezeled or Destroyed, either Wilfully or by Neglect or Stealth, the Relieving Officer shall Sign to no more then shall be found in the said Barrack ; and the Barrack-master shall return a true Duplicate thereof to the Barrack-Office, together with an Estimate of the Charge for making good the Damage done, to be laid before Us, in order to stop from the Substance issuable to the said Troop or Company the same, which shall be Transmitted to the Barrack-master, to make good such Damage.

Thirdly, Every Barrack-master shall as often as occasion requires, certify to the Barrack-Office what Damage has happened to any of the Barracks within his District, occasioned by Storms or any other unavoidable Accident, with an Estimate of the charge for its Repair, to the end that the same may be forthwith repaired to prevent further Charge, to which purpose he shall once every Month at least, view every Barrack in his District ; and if he finds any neglect in the men tending to the prejudice of the Barrack or Furniture, that he give an Account thereof to the Officer.

Fourthly, Every Barrack-master shall in proper Season, provide Firing and Candle for each Barrack, according to such Proportion and Allowance as We shall Direct ; and therein

Fifthly, If it shall happen that any Troop or Company shall be by Us Commanded away from the Barrack or Redoubt, and no other Ordered to Relieve, of which intention Notice shall be given to the said Barrack-master, he shall thereupon repair to the said Barrack, at the time the Troop or Company is to March, and there Recieve into his Charge the said Barrack and Furniture, in manner as is before mentioned, and shall also recieve such parcel of Fireing and Candles as ought to remain there in proportion to the Quantity and Time the Troop or Company has spent thereon, which he shall preserve with the Barrack and Furniture the best way he can, and the same safely keep until he shall be ordered to deliver them up; and in case any Imbezelment or Extravagant Expence shall appear to have been committed in the Fireing and Candle, that he do certifie the same accordingly.

By Their Excellencies Command,

H. May.
